

I cannot express my appreciation for the passage of the ordinance that has prohibited the solicitation calls that disrupted and degraded my personal time at home. Many of the calls were rude and obnoxious and never seemed to come at a convenient time. In this day and age where privacy seems to be trampled time and time again, it would be a shame to see this triumph undermined for greed!